PATE-HALL

WEDDING.

Takes Place Sunday Afternoon At The Beautiful Country Home Of The Bride's Parents—Large Number Of Guests Present.

THE REV. GAYER OFFICIATES.

Sunday afternoon, May the second, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pate, occurred one of the prettiest home weddings that has taken place in this county for some time, when Miss Emma T. Pate became the wife of Mr. Herbert Hall.

The ceremony was performed at two o'clock by the Rev. Gayer, of Irvington, in a most impressive manner. Amid a great number of relatives and friends, who were circled around the parlor, the bride and groom marched into the room to the "Bridal Chorus" which was most pleasingly rendered by Miss Isabelle Hendricks. The happy couple advanced to the center of the room, where they were met by the officiating minister, who pronounced the ceremony that made two hearts one, as Miss Hendricks played the beautiful selection, "Love's Confession". After the ceremony the happy pair received the congratulations of their many friends and relatives and prepared to drive to Hardinsburg, where they will be at home to their friends at the home of Mrs. H. F. Roberts, a sister of the bride.

Miss Pate's costume was of white taffeta silk and she carried a bunch of white carnations tied with white ribbon and looked very pretty indeed. She is a most lovable young woman and that community's loss will be Hardinsburg's gain.

Mr. Hall is head bookkeeper for B. F. Beaulieu & Co., Hardinsburg, and is a young man of sterling qualities and well liked by all who know him. The News extends congratulations.

Mrs. LaHeist Dead.

Mrs. LaHeist, died Monday morning in Henderson at the home of husband, Mr. M. J. LaHeist, who is a brother of Mrs. Keith of this city. Mrs. LaHeist was sixty-nine years of age and was a lovely woman. Mrs. Keith has gone to Henderson to attend the funeral.

Little City Needs More Homes—Town on A Boom—Personal Notes About Folks You Know.

KNIGHTS HAVE GOOD MEETING.

The wedding bells are ringing louder than ever in our city.

Mrs. Lawrence Minish and attractive little daughter, Miss Eloise, of Frankfort, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kemper last week.

J. R. Wimp went to Owensboro Sunday to see his mother, Mrs. Kitty Wimp, who is very ill.

Mrs. W. J. Piggott has returned from Henderson where she went to attend a Sunday School convention.

In one way it speaks well for a town that there are no vacant dwellings to be had, on the other hand it is a sad reflection on the public spiritedness of the citizens of that same town, when good people who are anxious to become residents, are forced to "move on" because they can find no place to lay their heads. Build more houses to rent at popular prices. Help yourself, help your town.

The pupils of the private school assisted by the music pupils of the town, will give an entertainment at the school house on Tuesday evening, May 25.

O. P. Hazard, of Louisville, representing The Baldwin Piano Co., has placed a handsome vocalion into the Baptist church at this place. The congregation feel justly proud of this marked improvement.

Mrs. Weedman, of Sample, is the guest of Mrs. Cash Basham.

H. H. Kemper bought the barber shop owned by T. J. Adkisson and is now running the business in the same old stand with Mr. T. R. Bland as the barber.

A very important and interesting meeting of the Knights of Pythias was held at their hall Tuesday night. Mr. May, of Cloverport, was here.

The heavy wind on last Friday night did considerable damage to the Baptist church, tearing the entire roof off on one side of the house. The inside is hurt a little but not as bad as thought at first.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Chamberlain entertained very beautifully at their home on Woodland on last Friday afternoon. The house was decorated in purple lilacs and all kinds of potted plants which were especially pretty. The guests played "Forty-two" progressively. It was one of the prettiest affairs given last week and was a charming afternoon for all present. Delicious refreshments were served.

E. F. Alexander spent two days of last week in Cincinnati buying goods.

Mrs. Charlie Pemberton after being the guest of Mrs. L. E. Henderson, has returned to Louisville.

Ben S. Clark, n. of Big Spring, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kemper Sunday.

Austin Parks arrived here on last Monday from Springfield, Ind., to be the guest of Dr. S. P. Parks.

Mrs. J. O. Chapin and children left Monday for an indefinite visit to relatives at Owensboro.

The "3G's," Cloverport's greatest decorators will be in Irvington May 10 to 14. Our sample line of Wall Paper and design book of decorations including every fad and fancy, will be on exhibition at the millinery store of Miss Laura Hale. Come and see the line.

NEW STEAM-

BOAT LINE

To Give Cloverport an Independent Line to Louisville. Will Make Three Trips a Week.

A movement has been started in the upper Ohio between Cloverport and Louisville to place an independent boat line to run between these points to make connection with the Gazette here.

Cloverport offers a good location to some wide awake business man who can put in a floating wharfboat and can handle all kinds of feed stuff and live stock and attend to the business.

The agency of three steamboat lines if could be secured, would be fine for Cloverport.

The Napper House.

Mrs. Napper has returned here and moved in the house she formerly occupied on High street and is keeping boarders. Mrs. Napper wishes that all her old customers would patronize her.

Powers Here.

Oscar Powers, of Hawesville, has a position at the Henderson Route depot in this city. He is a genial man and is making many friends here.

HARRIS GETS

TWO YEARS.

Owensboro Man Accused Of

Arson Gets Verdict In Daviess Circuit Court.

The trial of J. A. Harris, on the charge of attempted arson, was completed in Circuit Court at Owensboro Monday afternoon, but was not submitted to the jury until Tuesday morning. After a deliberation of an hour or two, the jury returned a verdict of two years in the penitentiary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTIONS AND SPECIAL REQUESTS.

We desire to call the attention of all Sunday School workers to our county convention to be held at McQuady June 2 and 3. We very much desire to have all the district conventions before that date. Will the district officers go to work at once and fix time and place and notify us as we desire to attend. Please take notice that the Hardinsburg district convention is announced for May 29.

We hope two conventions will not be held on the same day. Watch for further announcements and the program which will appear in the near future. We are looking forward to one of the best conventions in the history of the past. We are planning to bring together all the superintendents of Schools in the county. So Mr. Superintendent begin to get ready to come. Why may we not have fifty superintendents at McQuady June 3? We hope to have a special train over there that morning for all who cannot go over the day before.

T. B. Henderson, Pres.
Ora B. Hendricks, Secy.

To Clean Hair Rats.

A splendid way to clean hair rats is to wash them in gasoline. This makes them light and fluffy.

ST. JOHN'S DAY

CELEBRATION.

Masons Of Hardinsburg Will Celebrate—Dr. Woods, Associate Editor Of St. Louis

Advocate, To Be Present.

THIRD DEGREE EXEMPLIFIED.

Saturday, June the nineteenth, the Breckenridge Masonic Lodge of Hardinsburg, will celebrate St. John's Day with a most interesting program for the occasion.

The ceremonies will be held in the Methodist church South. Dr. C. C. Woods, past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Mo., will deliver the principal address. Among the others expected to be present is: Ex-Governor, Thos. T. Crittenden.

All the sister lodges of the county will be present and will work in the third degree, which will be exemplified on one of Breckenridge's most prominent citizens.

Saturday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Mather will hold a public reception in the parlors of the church in honor of the visitors.

Good Position.

Forrest Gilliland has accepted a position as clerk in the grocery department of Fraize's store. Mr. Gilliland is one of the most accommodating men in business circles of this city and his services will be greatly appreciated by Fraize's customers.

MR. VESSELS SUBMITS

TO OPEATION.

J. W. Vessels, of Rhodelia, had his left leg amputated above the knee last week. It is hoped the operation will relieve Mr. Vessels of the intense suffering caused from a corn on his little toe. His right leg was broken ten years ago in a runaway. Notwithstanding all his misfortunes, Mr. Vessels has reached the ripe old age of seventy-two years. He has many friends in the county who say he is a man of wonderful fortitude.

Emerson Here First This Season.

Emerson's Floating Palace, the most well known boat on the river, will exhibit here next Friday, May, 7, presenting the great scenic production, "Mother Against Brother," and olio of the finest vaudeville, illustrated songs and moving pictures.

Mr. Emerson has spared no effort to enhance the comfort of his patrons and provide amusement worthy of the highest consideration, and with this one aim always in view, he has placed on his boat a company of thirty excellent artists. The scenery, costumes and electrical effects have never been surpassed by any traveling organization.

All lovers of good music want to hear Emerson's Concert Band composed of eighteen pieces, and orchestra composed of eleven, making this the largest band and orchestra on the river.

Beans Eight Inches High.

Possibly no one can boast of better garden luck than Mr. Chas. May. He has bean vines eight inches high, full of blooms; he also has peas and other vegetables well advanced in growth. Mr. May's tomato plants, which he sells, are excellent this year and there are many varieties.
